Program Descriptions

LAW PROGRAM

---

- 13-week program that educates youth 14-18 about the law, helps build social emotional learning skills, and engages young people as change agents in their communities. Program components include weekly workshops, a field trip to a local law school where youth engage in a mock trial, and end of program recognition ceremony.

STAY FLY PROGRAM

- Program designed to build agency and self-advocacy in young adults 18-25 to decrease justice system involvement and ensure successful transition back into communities. Program components include law-related education, case management and coaching, court and education advocacy, and prosocial events.

LEADERSHIP TRAINING PROGRAM

- 10-month program for at-risk and justice system-impacted youth of 14-18 who are interested and motivated to become changemakers in their communities. Program components include a wilderness retreat, leadership coaching, service learning, and prosocial events.
